By His Excellency Dannel P. Malloy, Governor: an Official Statement

WHEREAS, Professor Herbert W. Conn served as Supervisor of Dairy Bacteriology at the Storrs Agricultural Experimental Station from 1888 to 1906, establishing it as an international center of expertise in dairy bacteriology.; and

WHEREAS, Professor Herbert W. Conn was the first Director of the Connecticut State Board of Public Health and shared his public health expertise across the United States; and

WHEREAS, Professor Herbert W. Conn was a popular teacher at Wesleyan University and the Connecticut Agricultural College and shared his knowledge of microbes and their roles in the world with the public through lectures and many popular books; and

WHEREAS, in 1899 Professor Herbert W. Conn was one of the founders of the Society of American Bacteriologists which later become known as the American Society for Microbiology; and

WHEREAS, the University of Connecticut will be designated as a Milestones in Microbiology Site by the American Society for Microbiology to honor Professor Herbert W. Conn's remarkable contributions to the field of microbiology, his lasting impacts nationally on agricultural science, public health, and the study of microbiology at the University of Connecticut; now

THEREFORE, I, Dannel P. Malloy, Governor of the State of Connecticut, do hereby honor and recognize

PROFESSOR HERBERT W. CONN
AND THE MILESTONES IN MICROBIOLOGY SITE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT
in the State of Connecticut.